MONACO CLASSIC WEEK

Held from 9 to 13 September 2015 by the Yacht Club de Monaco, Monaco Classic Week - La Belle Classe demonstrates the unwavering commitment of Monaco to the sea and its maritime heritage browsing. Founded in 1994, the Monaco Classic Week was born from the idea of the Monaco Yacht Club to commemorate the first meetings of motorboats in 1904 to celebrate the ten years of presidency at the head of HSH Prince Albert II Club. From the outset, this biennial affirmed its major and unique event character anywhere else, we do together in the same port, the last witnesses of yachting of old, small and large yachts confused: traditional yachts led by Tuiga, the flagship of Club, motorboats, the whistles of steam engines and engine backfiring overpowered runabouts will fill the space of the Port Hercule and motor yachts period, symbols of a way of life and extremely refined.

MONACO CLASSIC WEEK –CLASSIC YACHT « Oiseau de feu »

Welcome aboard the CLASSIC YACHT « Oiseau de feu », 1937 classic sailing yacht designed by Charles E. Nicholson and Historical Monument . At the request of Ralph HAWKES , commodore of the RORC (Royal Ocean Racing Club), Charles E. Nicholson draws a lighter boat and faster than its predecessors to gain offshore regattas like the Fastnet . In 1937 leaves the shipyard Camper & Nicholson , Oiseau de feu X, whose sleek lines recall the elegance of 12M JI but while providing optimal fit in the great cruise. Oiseau de feu is one of the most suitable classic yachts in the regatta and constantly running for the top places of the classic events , as evidenced by its recent track record. When racing the boat can accommodate up to 15 crew members. In an original and convivial environment, the crew of Oiseau de feu offers the opportunity to live unforgettable moments.
